

Quality Policy

Bruker UK Limited is committed to the requirements of the Quality Management System, appropriate legal and regulatory requirements and therefore will endeavour to:

- Be regarded by our customers as an enterprise of integrity for the provision of goods and services.
- Consider the needs and requirements of our customers and stakeholders, and endeavour to meet, and strive to exceed, their expectations to enhance their satisfaction.
- Encourage participation, recognise their contribution and provide an environment to motivate all employees at all levels to achieve their full potential to the benefit of both the employee and the company.
- Provide the necessary resources, training, safe facilities and working environment to achieve and continuously improve the company's overall performance.
- Communicate and regularly review this policy and all relevant manuals and procedures, to ensure compliance with the quality standard and ensure the stated objectives are maintained.
- Provide an environment where all employees are motivated to continually improve the efficiency and effectiveness of our products, services, processes and management system.
- Establish and communicate our goals and objectives for the organisation and, through our leadership, guide the behaviour of all our employees to achieve our goals and objectives.
